SPRING BREAK
What can you expect?

Each module includes:

- Leadership/facilitation by a Goizueta professor with support from a staff member.
- Dedicated trip manager from International Study Programs (ISP).
- Corporate/NGO tours and meetings, cultural experiences, free time to explore
What do you need to do?

- Research destinations and develop 1st, 2nd, 3rd choices
- Register during direct enrollment
- Make sure your passport expiration is more than 6 months after your module concludes
- Attend pre-trip meetings/complete assignments
- Purchase flights from/to US
- Apply for financial aid supplement
- Follow deposit/payment deadlines for your module
- Visit a travel clinic
2016 International Mid-Semester Modules

How much does it cost?

- MSM tuition is part of your Spring term
- You are responsible for your airfare from the US to your first MSM destination and your return flight to the US
- Each module has an additional cost of approximately $3500 paid directly to ISP via credit card
- You may request financial aid for the cumulative cost of the trip. Budgets provided to Financial Aid by Program Office

SPRING BREAK
What can you expect?

On-Campus modules are designed to provide a unique format of short-term study in an area that is only covered in part or not covered at all by electives.

- Modules will be led by faculty from Goizueta or other universities, alumni, or industry professionals.
- Modules will have varying schedules.
- They could meet for half days, all day, in the day, or evenings.
- Class meetings take place at Goizueta.
Possible specialized topics in:

- Marketing
- Communications
- Human Capital
- Business of Entertainment
- Strategy
- Economics
2016 Mid-Semester Modules

Registration:

• MSM is required for all students
• Stand alone registration for MSM and BUS 561: Leading with Emotional Intelligence
• MSM spaces are divided evenly between 1st-years and 2nd-years
• Separate waitlists for each class
